serve the creditor by serving the attorney who represents the creditor in a pending foreclosure action against the subject property. If there is no foreclosure action pending and no other address on record, the debtor must serve the creditor as required by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004.

- (4(5) Within 45 days of the appointment of the mediator, the mediator must hold a pre-mediation telephonic conference to help the debtor and creditor identify any missing documents, expedite exchange of any necessary documents, and address any impediments to moving forward or other pre-mediation issues. At the pre-mediation telephone conference, the mediator must, at a minimum, record the status of the parties' efforts, the progress the mortgagee and mortgagor have made on the production and exchange of financial documents, any review of information that occurs during the conference, any request for additional information, the anticipated time frame for submission of any additional information and the lender's review of the information, and the scheduling of the mediation session. The mediator may require the lender's representative to participate in the pre-mediation telephone conference, and any other meetings the mediator deems appropriate in order to expeditiously conclude the mediation process.

 - (A) the creditor must serve the debtor and the mediator with a creditor's response to the adequacy of the debtor's mediation documents (Vt. LB MM Form #8) and file the same with the Court, with a certificate of service; or
 - (B) if the creditor finds the documents from the debtor to be incomplete, finds the debtor has not served all documents articulated on the list, or determines additional documents are necessary in this particular case, the creditor may file a motion to compel compliance with the mediation order (Vt. LB MM Form #4) in lieu of the response; and

LB MM Form #4), the debtor will have 14 days to file a response with any documents required to bring the debtor into compliance with the mediation order. A motion to compel is a non-routine motion for purpose purposes, of this Rule. Cf. Vt. LBR 9013-2(b), (c)(5)(C). The creditor may set a hearing thereon, to be held shortly after the expiration of the debtors' response time; if the creditor does not set a hearing, the Court will do so if it deems a hearing necessary.
 - The mediator must schedule the mediation session to be held within 21 days of the filing of the creditor's response, or of an order adjudicating the motion if the creditor files a motion in lieu of the creditor's response, whichever is later. The first mediation session must be held within 90 days of the dateselection of the Court enters the mediation ordermediator, unless the Court approves grants, a motion to enlarge the time. The mediation must conclude within 14 days of the first mediation session, unless the mediator determines there is good cause to extend the mediation period. The mediators shall have broad discretion and authority to manage the mediation process, including the authority to enlarge the 90-day time period between entryselection of the mediation order-mediator and the convening of the first mediation session, provided the mediator files (A) a statement setting forth the basis for enlarging this time period and #(B) a precise and firm schedule for commencing and completing the mediation. The mediator is encouraged and authorized to schedule a pre-mediation telephone conference in order to ascertain the status of the document exchange between the parties, assist in resolving any outstanding issues, address any impediments to moving forward, and schedule the mediation session as soon as possible. The mediator may also require the lender's representative to participate in the pre-mediation telephone conference and any other meetings necessary to expeditiously conclude the mediation process.

(7) (9) If a modification is denied, the creditor must provide a written explanation at the time of denial as to why a modification is not available (including any input figures used in calculating eligibility for a modification).
