ORDER DENYING DEBTOR'S MOTION TO DETERMINE AND LIMIT THE AMOUNT OF DISBURSEMENTS FOR PAYMENT OF U.S. TRUSTEE'S FEES

CONRAD, Bankruptcy J.

1 UPON, the debtors' motions to determine and limit the amount of disbursements for computing the payment of United States Trustee's fees, properly noticed and heard before this Court on September 11, 1997, and further

UPON, the appearances listed above, and the United States Trustee's timely filed and properly served objections to the relief sought in both cases, and further

UPON, oral argument having been made, and upon the entire record before the Court, the Court now

FINDS, that in 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6), as amended in 1996, the term "disbursements", was meant by Congress to include any and all funds, including plan payments and operating expenses, paid out by the debtor, or the reorganized entity, for any reason, during the entire pendency of the chapter 11 case, and the Court further

FINDS, that 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6), as amended in 1996, extended the period for which payment of fees are due to the United States Trustee for as long as the chapter 11 case is pending before the court and, specifically, until the case is converted to another chapter, dismissed, or closed by the Court pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 350(a), therefore it is ORDERED, that the debtors' motions to determine and limit the amount of disbursements for computing the payment of United States Trustee's fees, are denied, with prejudice.
